Commentary on Devarim (Deuteronomy) by Rabbi Abrami

The fifth book of the Torah contains the last discourse which Moses, our Teacher, delivered to the Children of Israel. In it, he summarizes some of the essential teachings of our faith.

Rabbi Jeffrey Tigay states in his introduction to the book (Etz Hayim, Torah and Commentary, United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism): "This discourse is the most vigorous and clear advocate of monotheism and the ardent loyalty that Israel owes to God's love, justice and transcendence. It stresses the covenant between God and Israel which was established with the patriarchs and reaffirmed at Sinai"... "The Torah's humanitarianism is most developed in it as is its concern for the welfare of the poor and disadvantaged..."

He concludes with these words: "No address has shaped Jewish consciousness and identity more than Deuteronomy's proclamation: "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is One. You shall love Him with all your heart, all your soul, all your might".

We wish "Refuah Shelemah," a speedy recovery to congregants, family and friends who are ill. We encourage you to call or visit with them and wish them well.

If anyone wants a name listed for a mishebeirach, please call the office by Wednesday of the week and the name will go into the bulletin for that week.

A prayer for healing can be said at any time and does not require a minyan. The Amidah (page 113 in Siddur Sim Shalom) shows a format that can be used: "May it be your will, Lord our God and God of our ancestors, to send perfect healing, of body and soul, to _____, along with all others who are stricken".

Mi she-bei-rach a-vo-tei-nu M'kor ha'bra-cha l'i-mo-tei-nu May the source of strength Who blessed the ones before us, Help us find the courage To make our lives a blessing	Mi she-bei-rach i-mo-tei-nu M'kor ha-brach-cha l'a-votei-nu Bless those in need of healing With refuah shelemah - The renewal of body, The renewal of spirit

Please advise Rabbi Abrami of anyone who is ill and would like to be visited. Call the office to provide details.

Rabbi Abrami is available for counseling on Mondays from 9 to 11 am (by appointment). Please call 623-584-7210

Tisha B'Av

Rabbi Abrami will lead services and teach as we observe Tisha b'Av on Saturday 13 August at 7:00 pm and on Sunday 14 August at 8:00 am

Tisha b'Av commemorates tragedies that have befallen the Jewish people on this date over the ages, some of which are:

- 587 BCE: destruction of the first temple by the Babylonians
- 70 CE: destruction of the second temple by the Romans
- 135 CE: crushing of the Bar Kochba revolt by the Romans.
- 1290: expulsion of the Jews from England
- 1306: expulsion of the Jews from France
- 1492: expulsion of the Jews from Spain
- ...and, within living memory,
- 1941: approval of the "Final Solution" by the Nazi Party
- 1942: start of mass deportations from the Warsaw ghetto.

Honor this very important date...

On Sunday, September 11 Beth Emeth will host a commemoration of those who died, those who rescued and those who were otherwise affected by the horrendous attacks on that date in 2001.

Lunch will be served at noon followed by a community honor ceremony in which leaders of Sun City West clergy will participate and the guest speaker will be Congressman Trent Franks.

This function is open to the public, not only to Beth Emeth members, so please invite friends of all faiths. There is no charge but reservations are required so please call the office at 623-584-7210 between 9 am and noon.

The following Yahrzeits will be observed during the coming week.
Kaddish may be said on Friday evening & Saturday morning
August 12 and 13, 2016.

El Malei Rachamim, the memorial prayer, may be said on the Monday or Thursday preceding the Yahrzeit at the 8:00 am Minyan.

The Minyanaires is a dedicated group of Jewish individuals who meet on Monday at 8:00 am and Thursday at 8:00 am to pray shacharit, the morning service. Everyone is welcome, whether saying kaddish or not.
