KI TAVO

Ki Tavo is one of the last sections of the Torah. It contains the description of an ancient ritual whereby the priests would pronounce benedictions and curses. The late Chief Rabbi Hertz preferred the word "admonitions".

All modern translations of the Bible follow his lead.

Indeed, they are warnings and attempts to sway the believers that nothing good would result from their transgressing the teachings of righteousness of the Torah.

They should, therefore, follow the right path so that they may feel rewarded.

We wish "Refuah Shelemah," a speedy recovery to congregants, family and friends who are ill. We encourage you to call or visit with them and wish them well.

If anyone wants a name listed for a mishebeirach, please call the office by Wednesday of the week and the name will go into the bulletin for that week.

A prayer for healing can be said at any time and does not require a minyan. The Amidah (page 113 in Siddur Sim Shalom) shows a format that can be used: "May it be your will, Lord our God and God of our ancestors, to send perfect healing, of body and soul, to _____, along with all others who are stricken".

Mi she-bei-rach a-vo-tei-nu M'kor ha'bra-cha l'i-mo-tei-nu May the source of strength Who blessed the ones before us, Help us find the courage To make our lives a blessing And let us say, Amen	Mi she-bei-rach i-mo-tei-nu M'kor ha-brach-cha l'a-votei-nu Bless those in need of healing With refuah shelemah - The renewal of body, The renewal of spirit And let us say, Amen

Please advise Rabbi Abrami of anyone who is ill and would like to be visited. Call the office to provide details.

Rabbi Abrami is available for counseling on Mondays from 9 to 11 am (by appointment). Please call 623-584-7210

Do you want to get more involved in our Beth Emeth Family?

We are always looking for people to help with events as well as our day to day activities. Please take some time to think about programs that you would like to volunteer to help with or any new programming ideas that you think we should add to our to Beth Emeth Congregation.

The following Yahrzeits will be observed during the coming week.

Kaddish may be said on Friday evening & Saturday morning September 23 and 24, 2016.

El Malei Rachamim, the memorial prayer, may be said on the Monday or Thursday preceding the Yahrzeit at the 8:00 am
