Commentary on the Haftarah of Parshat Re'eh

This is the third haftarah of consolation read after Tishah b'Av.

Even as the Torah reading sets the choice between blessing and curse, so does the Haftarah of Isaiah (54:11-55:5) assure the people that since the curse has been visited on Israel, the time for blessing will now be at hand.

The Talmud tells us that when Rabbi Yohanan ben Zakkai was walking through the ruins of Jerusalem after its destruction by the Romans in 70 CE, his disciple said to him: "How sad it is to see what has remained of Jerusalem".

But his teacher replied: "Don't be afflicted, my son; if the curse has come upon Israel according to prophecy, now is the time for the blessing to be fulfilled".

Israel is the only nation of antiquity to have survived twenty centuries of exile and to be thriving once again, as it never did in the past.

If anyone wants a name listed for a mishebeirach, please call the office by Wednesday of the week and the name will go into the bulletin for that week.

A prayer for healing can be said at any time and does not require a minyan. The Amidah (page 113 in Siddur Sim Shalom) shows a format that can be used: "May it be your will, Lord our God and God of our ancestors, to send perfect healing, of body and soul, to _____, along with all others who are stricken".

Mi she-bei-rach a-vo-tei-nu  M'kor ha'bra-cha l'i-mo-tei-nu  May the source of strength  Who blessed the ones before us,  Help us find the courage  To make our lives a blessing  And let us say, Amen	Mi she-bei-rach i-mo-tei-nu  M'kor ha-brach-cha l'a-votei-nu  Bless those in need of healing  With refuah shelemah -  The renewal of body,  The renewal of spirit  And let us say, Amen
