Rabbi Leo M. Abrami

GOING TO SYNAGOGUE

As Moishe was leaving the synagogue - after having said Kaddish for his late father - the rabbi shook hands with him and said: "Moishe, why don't you come to Schul more often?" "Rabbi, I'll tell you why, there are too many hypocrites in this synagogue." "Oh Moishe, you should know that there will always be some room for one more."

AN ANECDOTE FROM MAX GIMPEL

After the new rabbi gave his first sermon in the synagogue, he overheard a member of the congregation telling his friends that he had never heard such a bad sermon.

The rabbi went immediately to see the president and reported the conversation. "Don't worry, Rabbi," said the president, "this man is not entirely compos mentis, he only repeats what other people say."

WHEN ALBERT EINSTEIN was being interviewed by the reporter of a famous magazine, the reporter asked him a personal question: "Professor, where would you like to die?" Einstein answered, 'I would like to die in one of the Eastern small villages of Switzerland.' "Why in Switzerland?" asked the reporter. "That's because I know, that in these villages, everything is happening twenty years later..."

A prayer for healing can be said at any time and does not require a minyan. The Amidah (page 113 in Siddur Sim Shalom) shows a format that can be used: "May it be your will, Lord our God and God of our ancestors, to send perfect healing, of body and soul, to _____, along with all others who are stricken".

George Allen, Ailene Barkhoff, Ricki Dishler, Melissa Engber, Peter Gottlieb, Thomas Hannagian, Evie Martinez, Adrienne Flisser, Howard Marshall, Michael Newman, Rosalyn Podbielak, Joan Rothfeld, A. David Silverman, Marcia Turkiewicz, Esther Weiner

We wish "Refuah Shelemah," a speedy recovery to Congregants, family and friends who are ill. We encourage you to call or visit with them and wish them well.
