SHABBAT HAGADOL

The Shabbat which precedes the Passover Holiday is called "Shabbat Hagadol" for the following reason. We read on this Shabbat a Haftarah taken from the book of Malachi which states:

"See, I will send the rophet Elijah to you before that great and dreadful day of the Lord comes. He will turn the hearts of the parents to their parents; or else I will come and strike the land with total destruction." (Malachi 4:5)

The "great and dreadful day" is referred in Hebrew as "Yom Ha-Gadol".

From this verse, our Sages have also derived a special meaning and a custom that has become part of the Seder ritual. In addition, to the four cups of wine, we pour a fifth cup, the cup of Elijah, who will usher in the establishment of the Messianic era, an era of peace and good will for all humanity.

If anyone wants a name listed for a mishebeirach, please call the office by Wednesday of the week and the name will go into the bulletin for that week.

A prayer for healing can be said at any time and does not require a minyan. The Amidah (page 113 in Siddur Sim Shalom) shows a format that can be used: "May it be your will, Lord our God and God of our ancestors, to send perfect healing, of body and soul, to _____, along with all others who are stricken".

George Allen, Ailene Barkhoff, Ricki Dishler, Melissa Engber, Adrienne Flisser, Thomas Hannagian, Peggy Markowitz, Howard Marshall, Joan Rothfeld, Jerry Simon, A. David Silverman, Marcia Turkiewicz

We wish "Refuah Shelemah," a speedy recovery to Congregants, family and friends who are ill. We encourage you to call or visit with them and wish them well.
