EMOR

The parasha (weekly Torah portion) for the week ending May 1 is Emor. Emor means "speak" in Hebrew and is the fifth word (and first distinctive word) in the portion. Be sure to check out the cartoons at the end for some great perspectives on these Torah portions.

Emor is a good name for Emor because there is a lot of "emor-ing" going on. G-d tells Moshe to talk to his peeps. This is the beginning of the formation of our Jewish community and like with all new communities, you have to set some ground rules. The first set of rules revolves around the High Priest, or Kohen Gadol, and his Kohanim (priests). They are rules like a Kohen cannot come in contact with a dead body and can't marry a woman who has been divorced. To this day, many people of Kohen descent follow these rules and will not marry a divorcee or a woman who is not a virgin. Other rules include not shaving heads or beards. Even if a man were born into the role of Kohen, by virtue of his tribe, if he were disabled he could not bring a sacrifice.

If anyone wants a name listed for a mishebeirach, please call the office by Wednesday of the week and the name will go into the bulletin for that week.

A prayer for healing can be said at any time and does not require a minyan. The Amidah (page 113 in Siddur Sim Shalom) shows a format that can be used: "May it be your will, Lord our God and God of our ancestors, to send perfect healing, of body and soul, to _____, along with all others who are stricken".

Ailene Barkhoff, Ricki Dishler, Melissa Engber, Adrienne Flisser, Thomas Hannagian, Peggy Markowitz, Howard Marshall, Joan Rothfeld, Jerry Simon, A. David Silverman, Leah & Charlie Tarnor, Marcia Turkiewicz

We wish "Refuah Shelemah," a speedy recovery to Congregants, family and friends who are ill. We encourage you to call or visit with them and wish them well.

Mi Shebeirach, by Debbie Friedman

Mi she-bei-rach a-vo-tei-nu
M'kor ha'bra-cha l'i-mo-tei-nu
May the source of strength
Who blessed the ones before us,
Help us find the courage
To make our lives a blessing,
And let us say, Amen

Mi she-bei-rach i-mo-tei-nu
M'kor ha-brach-cha l'a-voti-nu
Bless those in need of healing
With R'fu-a sh'lei-ma
The renewal of body,
The renewal of spirit
And let us say,

*Silence in the Sanctuary
Even a few whispered words can destroy the ambiance of prayer & meditation.*

The following Yahrzeits will be observed during the coming week. Kaddish may also be said on Friday Evening & Saturday morning May 12th & May 13th, 2017.

El Malei Rachamim, the memorial prayer, may be said on the Monday or Thursday preceding the Yahrzeit at the 8:00 am Minyan.
