PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE;
GOBBLE, GOBBLE:

HOW MANY WAYS CAN YOU EAT LEFTOVER TURKEY???? STEW, SANDWICHES, SOUPS, SALADS, SAUTE, CROQUETTES, TURKEY POT PIE, AND THE CHINESE DISH CALLED LETSGETRIDOFTHISALREADY".

As we look forward to Thanksgiving holiday, take a moment to look back and be thankful for the year that you were given. I find that many people say I should of, could of, and that's fine. It's what you can do this year to change that feeling. Instead of being negative, turn that around and start doing some positive thinking.

Let's be thankful for our Rabbi, volunteers, congregants, and of course the best synagogue in the Valley.

Why not make yourself a promise to do what you can to support the needs of our Shul.

This is what I ask of you.....

Help us for Onegs and Kiddush's

Offer your help to Sandy

Make phone calls to those who are ill, let them know that we care

Attend our functions and lectures

Or, anything else that you may be able to do.

WISHING YOU A TERRIFIC THANKSGIVING, AND MAY YOUR FOOTBALL TEAM WIN.

SHALOM, MARILYN

Modah Ani - I Thank You By Rabbi Tracee Rosen

Gratitude is a very Jewish thing. Our tradition teaches that the first words we are supposed to say when we wake up every morning are thanks to God for restoring our souls, for giving us the ability to wake up each and every day. Moreover, we are encouraged to try to say 100 blessings every day! That may seem like a big exaggeration, but it points us to a philosophy of life that teaches us to seek out things that we can appreciate all throughout the day, not just at the appointed times for prayer.

It turns out that the rabbis of old knew what they were talking about. Scientists are now discovering that consciously cultivating an attitude of gratitude has many beneficial health effects. A few years ago, Forbes magazine published an article, "7 Scientifically Proven Benefits of Gratitude That Will Motivate You To Give Thanks Year-Round." They included the following:

1. Gratitude opens the door to more relationships.
2. Gratitude improves physical health.
3. Gratitude improves psychological health.
4. Gratitude enhances empathy and reduces aggression.
5. Grateful people sleep better.
6. Gratitude improves self-esteem.
7. Gratitude increases mental strength.

Every week at Friday night services, I ask people to share something that they are grateful for, and often times, it seems that many people are at a loss. But the great philosopher, Abraham Joshua Heschel, reminds us that being able to express wonder, which leads to gratitude, is key to all spiritual living, and indeed to all learning:

The surest way to suppress our ability to understand the meaning of God and the importance of worship is to take things for granted. Indifference to the sublime wonder of living is the root of sin. Wonder or radical amazement is the chief characteristic of the religious man's attitude toward history and nature. One attitude is alien to his spirit: taking things for granted, regarding events as a natural course of things. To find an approximate cause of phenomenon is no answer to his ultimate wonder. He knows that there are laws that regulate the course of natural processes, he is aware of the regularity and pattern of things.

However, such knowledge fails to mitigate his sense of perpetual surprise at the fact that there are facts at all.

We can find wonder in the commonest of things - a beautiful sunset, the blooming of flowers, a passing hello of a fellow human being, and in that wonder, be grateful for our many relationships to other human beings.

At this appointed month of giving thanks, I am grateful to the many gracious volunteers who helped to make High Holy Day services so special this year, and to those who keep the congregation open and running on a daily basis. Please join me in thanking them for doing their part to keep Beth Emeth a living organization, and the Jewish heart of the northwest valley.

Happy Thanksgiving, Rabbi Tracee

Beth Emeth Men's Club held their second Kosher Hot Dog Kickoff Day on Sunday, October 29th. It was well attended, surpassing the sales of the first attempt.

NEW FRIDAY NIGHT SERVICE TIME

At the request of many members, we are changing our Friday night service start time to 6:30 p.m., beginning October 6, 2017. This will allow people the opportunity to either eat dinner early or after services if they prefer. Services will be finished by 7:45 - 8:00 pm, so it will also accommodate those who want to be home earlier in the evening. Periodically, we hope to be able to hold a dinner in the shul before services, or special extended onegs afterwards. Stay tuned to the Observer and our website for more details. We are also looking into holding periodic special musical Shabbat services on selected Friday nights.

"Old age is not a defeat, but a victory, not a punishment but a privilege. The test of a people is how it behaves toward the old . . . man's potential for change and growth is much greater than we are willing to admit and old age (can) be regarded not as the age of stagnation but as the age of opportunities for inner growth."

– Abraham Joshua Heschel

Wise Aging

Living with JOY, RESILIENCE, & SPIRIT

Rabbi Rachel Cowan
&
Dr. Linda Thal

We are proud to bring WISE AGING to our community!

Explore the tools and resources to age wisely through the lens of Jewish wisdom. Learn positive ways to navigate the transition to your next chapter on life's journey and find meaning and joy in a post-retirement identity.

Based on the book, "Wise Aging", by Rabbi Rachel Cowan and Dr. Linda Thal, and with trained facilitators, this series of interactive discussions offers opportunities for meaningful conversations.

Prior participant comments:

"I looked at my legacy and life with new eyes and it gives me a source of pleasure";

"I see myself as a contributor, as a whole person"

"We've know each other for 25 years, but not like this."

Wise Aging groups are forming now in the West Valley, facilitated by Rabbi Tracee Rosen.

Introductory four sessions will be held bi-weekly from November 3 through December 15. If the participants want, the group will continue meeting throughout the year. (This group is designed for full-year residents. If you are interested in forming a group for "snow birds," please contact Rabbi Rosen directly).

Dates: November 3, 17, December 1, 15 (First and third Fridays of the month), 10:30 am - 12:00 pm

Cost: $60 for four sessions. Participants must also purchase the Wise Aging book (shown above) ahead of the first meeting.

Open to: Anyone 50-90 years old

Location: Private home
