Shabbat H'ol Ha-Mo-Ed Sukkot

Tradition has it that we read the book of Ecclesiastes or Kohelet on the Sabbath which falls during the Festival of Sukkot, that is this Saturday. The central message of the book can be summed up in the second verse of it: "Vanities of vanities, all is vanity". Several new translations of the bible, have rendered the verse more accurately. One says, "Utter futility, all is futile" "or" "vapor of vapors, all is vapor".

Indeed, the idea that the author is trying to convey is that nothing will exist forever. Everything evolves and will eventually vanish like vapor. But it does not mean that it is vain. It has its value even though it may not last. We must therefore seize the moment of truth or happiness where it presents itself and cherish it at that time for it may dissipate itself and be no more .

Some values, however, will remain unscathed of our relationship with the Creator of the Universe and that is probably the reason why we read the book immediately after we celebrated the New Year.

Sisterhood Luncheon/Game Day Thursday, November 10th. Reservation Deadline Nov. 4th.

If anyone wants a name listed for a mishebeirach, please call the office by Wednesday of the week and the name will go into the bulletin for that week.

A prayer for healing can be said at any time and does not require a minyan. The Amidah (page 113 in Siddur Sim Shalom) shows a format that can be used: "May it be your will, Lord our God and God of our ancestors, to send perfect healing, of body and soul, to _____, along with all others who are stricken".

Hailey Cunningham, Melissa Engber, Marka Gottlieb, Evie Martinez, Michael Newman, Abraham David Silverman, Marcia Turkiewicz

We wish "Refuah Shelemah," a speedy recovery to congregants, family and friends who are ill. We encourage you to call or visit with them and wish them well.

Mi she-bei-rach a-vo-tei-nu M'kor ha'bra-cha l'i-mo-tei-nu May the source of strength Who blessed the ones before us, Help us find the courage To make our lives a blessing And let us say, Amen	Mi she-bei-rach i-mo-tei-nu M'kor ha-brach-cha l'a-votei-nu Bless those in need of healing With refuah shelemah - The renewal of body, The renewal of spirit And let us say, Amen
