Ha'Azinu (Deut. Chapter 32)

This is the last Torah reading that is read at services on Shabbat morning. Chapters 33 and 34 are read on Sim'h'at Torah (they will complete the annual cycle of Torah reading).

It consists of a poem summarizing the themes of the book of Deuteronomy (the last book of the Torah). It refers to the kindness and generosity of God and the occasional stubbornness of the Israelites. It contains admonitions on one hand and solemn promises on the other.

Moses taught this poem to the Israelites who learned it by heart. It was (is) indeed the custom in many Jewish communities for children to learn the poem by heart. One of the most sublime verses of the poem is the following:

"Remember the days of old, consider the years of ages past; ask your father, he will inform you, your elders, they will tell you: when the Most High gave nations their homes...He fixed the boundaries of people and Israel's numbers too". (Deut. 32:7)

If anyone wants a name listed for a mishebeirach, please call the office by Wednesday of the week and the name will go into the bulletin for that week.

A prayer for healing can be said at any time and does not require a minyan. The Amidah (page 113 in Siddur Sim Shalom) shows a format that can be used: "May it be your will, Lord our God and God of our ancestors, to send perfect healing, of body and soul, to _____, along with all others who are stricken".

Hailey Cunningham, Marka Gottlieb, Kate Heiser, Evie Martinez, Abraham David Silverman, Marcia Turkiewicz,

We wish "Refuah Shelemah," a speedy recovery to congregants, family and friends who are ill. We encourage you to call or visit with them and wish them well.

Help us find the courage
To make our lives a blessing
And let us say, Amen

Mi she-bei-rach i-mo-tei-nu
M'kor ha-brach-cha l'a-votei-nu
Bless those in need of healing
With refuah shelemah -
The renewal of body,
The renewal of spirit
And let us say, Amen

Please advise Rabbi Abrami of anyone who is ill and would like to be visited. Call the office to provide details.

Rabbi Abrami is available for counseling on Mondays from 9 to 11 am (by appointment). Please call 623-584-7210
