LESSONS FROM THE GEESE-author unknown

As geese flap their wings, they create uplift for the bird following. By flying in a "V" formation, the whole flock adds 71% greater flying range than if any bird were to fly alone.

If we share a common direction and a sense of community, we can get where we're going more quickly and easily because we are traveling on the thrust of one another.

Whenever a goose falls out of formation, it suddenly feels the drag and resistance of trying to fly alone, and quickly gets back into formation to take advantage of the lifting power of the bird immediately in front.

If we have as much sense as geese, we will stay in formation with those who are headed where we want to go, and we will be willing to accept their help as well as give ours to others. When the lead goose gets tired, it rotates back into formation and another goose flies at the point position.

If we take turns while doing the hard tasks and sharing leadership as with the geese, we become dependent on each other. The geese in formation honk from behind to encourage those up front to keep up their speed.

If we "honk", we need to make sure it is encouraging. When a goose gets sick or wounded or is shot down, two geese drop out of formation and follow it down to help and protect it. They stay with it until it is able to fly again or dies. They then launch out on their own, with another formation or catch up with the flock.

If we have as much sense as geese, we too will stand by each other in difficult times, as well as when we are strong. Let us all try to fly in formation and remember to drop back to help those who might need it!

THE STORY OF TWO WOLVES

One evening an old Cherokee told his grandson about a battle that goes on inside people. He said, "My son, the battle is between two "wolves" inside us all.

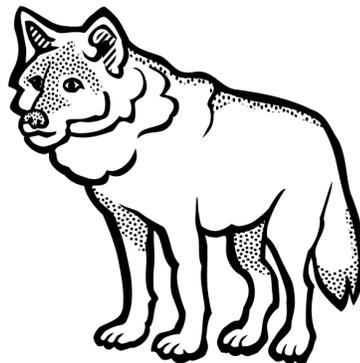

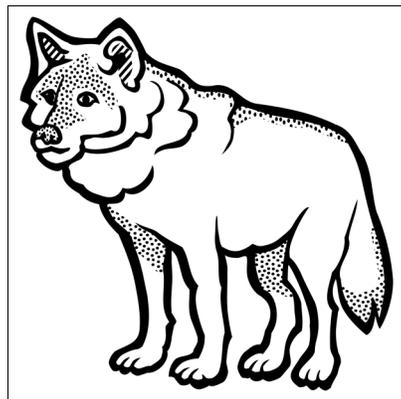

One is Evil. It is anger, envy, jealousy, sorrow, regret, greed, arrogance, self-pity, guilt, resentment, inferiority, lies, false pride, superiority, and ego.

The other is Good. It is joy, peace, love, hope, serenity, humility, kindness, benevolence, empathy, generosity, truth, compassion and faith"

The grandson thought about it for a minute and then asked his grandfather: "which wolf wins?"

The old Cherokee simply replied, "The one you feed."
There is a lesson to be learned. We at Beth Emeth can moan and groan about our situation, or we could all take the old Cherokee's advice and take the "Good" path.

Conservative synagogues vote to allow non-Jews as members

Umbrella organization for Conservative movement passes resolution allowing synagogues to invite non-Jews to become members.

JTA, 06/03/17

JTA - The umbrella body for Conservative synagogues approved a resolution to allow individual congregations to decide whether to grant membership to non-Jews.

The resolution was passed on March 1 during a Special Meeting of the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism General Assembly held over the internet with electronic voting. The measure passed overwhelmingly by a vote of 94 to 8 with one abstention; 15 members did not vote, according to a statement from the USCJ. "USCJ supports every affiliated kehillah in developing its own criteria for membership," the resolution reads, using a Hebrew word for "congregation."

"USCJ, as a valued and trusted partner, is committed to assisting welcoming, vibrant, and caring Jewish communities to fully engage the spiritual gifts of all community members. We celebrate the diversity among and within our kehillot and encourage the engagement of all those who seek a spiritual and communal home in an authentic and dynamic Jewish setting. We call on all of our kehillot to open their doors wide to all who want to enter," reads the commentary to the new standard. The proposed resolution grew out of a commission set up last March to explore ways to engage intermarried couples.

The Conservative movement prohibits its rabbis from marrying or attending the wedding ceremonies of interfaith couples, though some of its synagogues celebrate intermarriages before they occur and welcome the couples afterward. In recent years, several Conservative leaders have protested the intermarriage prohibition.

PASSOVER

Passover is the most celebrated of all Jewish holidays with more than 70% of Jewish Americans taking part in a seder, its ritual meal. Here's your guide to the basics of the holiday, which begins at sundown Friday — plus some lesser-known facts that explain why this celebration of liberation lies at the center of Jewish belief and tradition.

Q: Passover. In three sentences. Go.

A: The biblical Book of Exodus tells how the Israelites were slaves in Egypt. God parted the Red Sea and the prophet Moses led them to freedom. They wandered through the desert to the Holy Land, and along the way God gave them Jewish law.

Q: Explain the holiday one more time — with feeling.

A: “It is the master story of the Jewish people going from degradation to redemption, and it mirrors our own personal journeys,” said Rabbi Rick Jacobs, head of the Union for Reform Judaism, the largest stream of Judaism in North America.

“When we ask people, ‘What is the most important part of your Jewish identity?’” Jacobs continued, “the dominant answer is, ‘Standing up for equality, pursuing justice and standing up for the rights of the marginalized.’ These are core Jewish commitments. And if you ever had a ritual that teaches those commitments, it is Passover.”

A: By participating in a big meal called a seder, which means “order” in Hebrew — all its rituals are performed step by step. Seder guests take turns telling the story of the Exodus and the Israelites’ new relationship with God based on the law given to Moses on Mount Sinai.

Jewish families own haggadahs, books that recount the Exodus. Each participant in the seder gets a copy and follows along as family and friends read and explain the symbolism of the foods on the table. Some haggadahs are beautifully illustrated books with added commentary and poems. Others are simpler booklets that supermarkets in areas with significant Jewish populations give away, such as the well-known one published by Maxwell House coffee.

Q: Why do Jews deny themselves bread for the eight days of Passover?

A: Rushing out of Egypt, with Pharaoh’s army at their heels, the Israelites had no time to bake bread. So to this day Jews eat matzo — essentially a flat cracker — during Passover in place of food with leavening. So forget the croissants, pasta, pretzels, granola bars, etc.

And if you’re very serious about the rules, forget anything made with soy, corn or corn syrup. At this point, some may wonder if Passover is like one big low-carb diet. Actually, you can gain weight during Passover. The seder table is often laden with heavy food — lamb, brisket or chicken. And one Passover delicacy is macaroons. 70 calories a piece.

Q: Some Jews are really excited this year because of a ruling permitting the consumption of rice on Passover. Is rice exciting?

CONTINUED.....

A: On day seven of Passover, when you've been bread-, pasta- and chip-free for a week, rice might be an extremely welcome addition to your diet. But some Jews will still have nothing to do with it on Passover. So there's a debate, and the rice-eaters are winning. As Rabbi Jeffrey Salkin put it in a column on the topic: "Increasingly, Jews are saying that, when it comes to Passover, 'rice is nice.'"

The backstory: Tradition has it that Jews of Spanish origin eat rice on Passover. But Ashkenazi Jews — whose ancestors come from Central and Eastern Europe — did not. Now rabbis for the Conservative movement, the second-largest stream of Judaism in the U.S., have ruled that "kitniyot" — rice, legumes and some other formerly forbidden foodstuff — are fine to eat on Passover.

Q: And this holiday is called Passover because?

A: God, in Exodus 12:13, visits 10 plagues upon the Egyptians to convince Pharaoh to free the Israelites. During the last of the plagues, the smiting of the first-born sons, God "passed over" the houses of the Israelites, sparing them.

Q: Four cups of wine. For what?

A: Passover requires drinking four cups of wine, spaced throughout the seder. Lightweights sometimes interpret "cup" of wine to mean "a couple of sips." But the holiday does not condone mindless imbibing. Different rabbinic explanations for the four cups include one that posits that they represent the four terms for deliverance used in Exodus 6: 6-7.

Q: What's the "seder plate"? Isn't every plate at a seder a "seder plate"?

A: Nobody really eats off this plate. It's a single platter to display six symbolic foods.

It includes: 1. Haroset, an amalgam of fruit, nuts and wine that recalls the mortar the slaves used to build for Pharaoh. 2. A hard-boiled or roasted egg, which represents spring and was an object of a sacrifice. 3. A shankbone, which symbolizes the animal sacrifice the Israelites made before they left Egypt. 4. A bitter herb, to remind of the bitterness of slavery. 5. Karpas, a green vegetable that also invokes spring and is dipped in salt water to recall the tears of the enslaved Israelites. 6. A second green vegetable, typically Romaine lettuce, which is eaten with matzo and the bitter herb.

Q: What if I'm a kid? What's in Passover for me?

A: The youngest person at a Passover seder chants or recites — in Hebrew, English, Yiddish or another language — the Four Questions. The four are introduced by a preliminary question: "Why is this night different from all other nights?" The questions and their answers explain the symbolism of the food and rituals associated with the seder.

Then there's the afikomen, a special piece of matzo. By the end of the meal, some adult should have hidden it somewhere in the house. Then children look for the afikomen, and exchange it for a prize. A common afikomen prize: a Passover-themed children's book. Alternative prize found on Pinterest this year: Moses and Pharaoh action figures.

Yom Hashoah Memorial

Yom Hashoah Memorial (a Day of Remembrance) will be held on April 24, 2017 at 7:00 p.m. at Beth Emeth Congregation, 13702 W. Meeker Blvd., Sun City West, Az. In observance for this most important event, many local clubs, churches and synagogues will be represented. In addition to Rabbi Tracee Rosen who will lead us in prayers, we are pleased to have Pastor Bob Williams, Canon Timothy Dubeck, and Pastor Paul Neff. Our local Boy Scout Troop will honor us with their presence, as they read the names of the Concentration Camps. Any student who wants to learn about the Holocaust and the events that altered so many people's lives forever, come join us.

This event is open to all.

Stories of their faith and courage will be presented by Gail Grossman, Ninia Kalish and Brenda Hyman. We shall also recognize the Righteous ones who saved many Jews during the purge of the Jews. They too, will always be remembered.

In recent weeks, we have seen an increase in anti-Semitism. We must come together as a community to once again say "WE WILL NEVER FORGET". Let those who condemn us know that we shall stand up against them.

Please make your reservations by calling Sandy at 623-584-7210. Refreshments to be served. This is a free service, however, donations will be going to the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, DC. For more information or volunteering to help with this event, please contact Marty Cohen at 623-332-0693 or martycohen3911@gmail.com.

Mr. Gilbert Weller, who has been a member of our congregation for many years, suggested we organize a tour to Frankfort, Kentucky (near Cincinnati) to visit the exact replica of the "Ark of Noah" which is now found in the midst of an amusement park. It cost $102 million to build and many years to get it finished. One can also visit the inside of the ark.

All those interested should leave a message with Sandy in the office at 623-584-7210.

On Sunday, March 5th the Men's Club of Beth Emeth hosted their annual Cactus Kosher Hotdog Day. It was a rousing success. All the food items were sold. Many of the guests were repeat customers of several years and they thanked the hosts and said they were looking forward to next year.

Chairman Gene Cooper credited his experienced staff for the success, Max & Jack Debber, Saul Rothzeit, Sol & Shula Kantor, Jordan Colbert, Ben Rose, Sheldon Koven, Nelson Magedman and Norman Kurtz. Special thanks to Norman Mattisinko, a brand-new shul member who volunteered without being asked and David Caplan for helping with delivery issues, and of course Irv Glorit our Mr. Indispensable.

The next Men's Club event will be Sunday, May 7, at 9:30 AM, when Mark Brown, a sports journalist and synagogue member, will speak on "Jews in Baseball History". Light refreshments will be served. No admission charge.

The next regular scheduled meeting of the Men's Club will be Sunday, Apr.2, at 9:30 AM. All male members of Beth Emeth are invited to attend, Men's Club members or not.

WE ARE THANKFUL

March was a busy month for the Men's Club, Sisterhood, and the Congregation. The men's club had a very successful Hot Dog Day, and I am sure that those who attended can't wait for them to have another one soon.

Sisterhood made the most delicious Hummies. We have received many compliments. We ask that G-d give us the strength to do it again next year. I thank you all for participating and in doing so, sisterhood will be able to help Beth Emeth in the future. For those of you who would like to know how many were made, it was somewhere in between 1400 & 1500. I would like to thank Solo Corporation for donating the fillings. They have been so generous in the past, present and I hope again in the future.

Reading the magillah, and participating by drowning out H____'s name brings us all back to when we were children. The fun, the costumes, the hamantashen, Esther, Mordechai, and once again the triumph over our enemies.

Since the vote to reduce the amount for Onegs and Kiddush's, more people are planning to sponsor either one. Think about making that commitment.

I must thank Cheryl Bookman and her fantastic group of elves for a very successful Indoor Yard Sale. Thank you all for your support and schlepping your "stuff" over to us. We couldn't have done it without you.

Personally, I must say that, we have a great group of people on our board. You should be proud of them. They are working hard on programs, projects, and moving us forward into 2018 and beyond!! They give of their time, here and at home to be a part of something bigger than themselves. Kudos!!

Lastly, I hope that many of you make reservations for the Passover Seder being held at BE on the first night of Pesach.

Shalom, Marilyn Newberg

As many of you know, Rabbi Abrami will be leaving Beth Emeth to pursue other interests. We thank the rabbi for the many wonderful things that he has done for us. I am sure he will be happy wherever his heart leads him. It is very hard for me personally, to say goodbye to Rosemary. I am enchanted listening to her beautiful voice. She is always, kind, loving and giving of herself and her time. She will be missed by many.

All the best, Marilyn Newberg & the entire Congregation of Beth

Many of our members may not know how wonderful our office manager, Sandy, is. Take it from me, she is a gem. Her talents go further than just answering the phone, or making copies. She is always busy and is always helping either the rabbi, president, sisterhood, men's club, Ellie, the gift shop, and of course, the Observer. Next time you speak to her on the phone or come down to the office, please let her know and thank her, she certainly deserves our thanks. Marilyn

What a week this has been. Sunday, was the incredible indoor yard sale. Thursday afternoon, sisterhood had their paid up luncheon. What a fantastic meal (so I'm told). Friday night our congregation witnessed giving a child a Hebrew name. The Oneg was sponsored by the Klinert family. Saturday, Joan & Norm Mattisinko hosted a Kiddush because they were heading back home. As time consuming and labor intensive this week has been, I wish it was like that every week. I wish to emphasize that we have lowered our prices for an Oneg and or a Kiddush, so come celebrate a birthday, anniversary, simcha, or just because you feel like it.

Ellie Schwartzberg of Jewish Family and Children’s Service (JFCS) offers individual counseling, referral to appropriate resources and advocacy to Jewish people living in the Sun Cities and surrounding communities.

This is a free program underwritten by the Jewish Federation. Ellie has a Master’s degree in counseling from ASU and has been at JFCS for the past 32 years working with an older population. She is currently the Vice President of Geriatric Services at JFCS. Ellie offers this program at the Sun Cities Community Services Building on Tuesdays (9451 N. 99th Ave. Sun City) and at Beth Emeth Synagogue (13702 W. Meeker, Sun City West) on Thursdays. Counseling addresses such issues as coping with bereavement and loss, care-giving stress, long term planning and decision making, adjustment to chronic health problems, loss of independence, depression, couples’ issues, communication and problem solving with adult children, etc.

Ellie facilitates a Bereavement Support Group at Beth Emeth Congregation every Thursday from 1:00-2:00 PM. This group is open to anyone who has lost a spouse or significant other within the past two years.

Please call Ellie Schwartzberg at 602-452-4660 for more information or to make an appointment.
