VAYYAKHEL

We now enter upon the final section of the Book of Exodus, dealing with the actual construction of the Sanctuary. Instead of giving a brief notice announcing the execution of the Divine command, Scripture describes in detail now every instruction was faithfully and lovingly carried out.

The Rabbis, assuming that Moses would lose no time in starting upon the work, declare that the assembly occurred on the 11th of Tishri, immediately after his descent from Sinai on the day which was to become the Day of Atonement. The Sanctuary was the concern of every individual in Israel.

The exhortation which God had given to Moses concerning the holiness of the Sabbath, which must not be violated even for the sacred purpose of building the Tabernacle is repeated by Moses to the Congregation.

If anyone wants a name listed for a mishebeirach, please call the office by Wednesday of the week and the name will go into the bulletin for that week.

A prayer for healing can be said at any time and does not require a minyan. The Amidah (page 113 in Siddur Sim Shalom) shows a format that can be used: "May it be your will, Lord our God and God of our ancestors, to send perfect healing, of body and soul, to _____, along with all others who are stricken".

George Allen, Ailene Barkhoff, Ricki Dishler, Melissa Engber, Adrienne Flisser, Thomas Hannagian, Howard Marshall, Joan Rothfeld, A. David Silverman, Katie Todora, Marcia Turkiewicz, Esther Weiner

We wish "Refuah Shelemah," a speedy recovery to Congregants, family and friends who are ill. We encourage you to call or visit with them and wish them well.

Mi Shebeirach, by Debbie Friedman

Mi she-bei-rach a-vo-tei-nu
M'kor ha'bra-cha l'i-mo-tei-nu
May the source of strength
Who blessed the ones before us,
Help us find the courage
To make our lives a blessing,
And let us say, Amen

Mi she-bei-rach i-mo-tei-nu
M'kor ha-brach-cha l'a-voti-nu
Bless those in need of healing
With R'fu-a sh'lei-ma
The renewal of body,
The renewal of spirit
And let us say,

Please advise Rabbi Abrami of anyone who is ill and would like to be visited. Call the office to provide details.

*Silence in the Sanctuary
Even a few whispered words can destroy the ambiance of prayer & meditation.*
