HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

The second Haftarah of Consolation is very long indeed but how beautiful it is!

Isaiah received a message from God which he passed on to those Israelites who at this stage were in exile in Babylon. The promise was given that Israel would be restored to their homeland if they lived with an absolute trust that God had their best interests at heart.

The people might have felt abandoned and unloved, that the dangers and oppositions they would have to face appeared insurmountable. But time and again they were reassured that they were loved, valued and supported by God who would bring them back to the Promised Land.

“...let him trust in the name of the Lord and rely upon his God” (Isaiah 50:10) and “Gladness and joy shall abide there, thanksgiving and the sound of music” (51:3).

You are encouraged to follow the English if you don't understand Hebrew, for this poetic promise is uplifting to the soul.
