NOVEMBER 2019

Thanksgiving

*Thanksgiving is here, so our minds have turned
 To what time has taught us, to what we've learned:*

*We often focus all our thought
 On shiny things we've shopped and bought.
 We take our pleasure in material things,
 Forgetting the pleasure that friendship brings.*

*If a lot of our stuff just vanished today,
 We'd see the foundation of each happy day
 Is special relationships, constant and true,
 And that's when our thoughts go directly to you.
 We wish you a Thanksgiving you'll never forget,
 Full of love and joy—your best one yet!*

FROM THE DESK OF MARILYN NEWBERG, PRESIDENT

It seems like this year has gone by so fast. I guess that's what happens when you keep busy. The topic that I picked out for this month's Observer, is all about keeping busy.

Maybe you could tell me why?? The busiest people are the ones that always find the time to help out at Beth Emeth. This past year, we have old and new members pitching in, and I am so pleased. However, we need others to put their hands up and say "what can I help you with?" SO, I am asking everyone to consider helping each other.

We still need a 2nd vice president, please call and speak to me about the particulars of that position.

We definitely need several people to help Irene Lehrer and Harry Newman with the Film Festival. This is quite important. Not only do we see fantastic films, but this brings in a lot of revenue for us.

Please also consider joining the board of Beth Emeth. It's a 2 year commitment, and the more members we have on our board, the more ideas we get and the better we can function. We meet the third Friday of every month.

IF YOU CAN LIFT A TORAH, IT IS MOST IMPORTANT THAT YOU CONTACT RHODA LESSNER.

Sadly, many of our congregants can no longer manage handling the weight of a torah.

WANTED!!! A KOHAN OR TWO, OR THREE!!!. IT IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT WHEN WE READ THE TORAH, THAT THE RABBI HAS A KOHAN FOR THE FIRST ALIYAH. CALL THE OFFICE OR RHODA. YOU WILL BE MUCH APPRECIATED, AND I KNOW THAT YOU WILL HAVE DONE A GREAT MITZVOT.

I HOPE THAT I GET TO SEE YOU AROUND BETH EMETH, AND ESPECIALLY AT OUR SERVICES AND FUNCTIONS.

SHALOM,

MARILYN

FROM THE DESK OF RABBI TRACEE ROSEN

My best friend, Joy, lost her father, Marshall, this past year. Among the most important people in his life, was Mike. Mike was a younger retiree in his early 70s. He had met Marshall through a JFCS program of friendly visitors. Once a month, Mike & Marshall would get together for lunch or coffee, and once a year, when the Boston Red Sox were playing against Cincinnati at home, Mike would drive Marshall the 2 hours south from Columbus to enjoy an outing with their beloved Bo Sox. Over their 9 year relationship, Mike became an extended part of the family, included in all the family simchas.

Making friends in our older years can sometimes be very easy, especially in communities like ours where most everyone is a retiree from somewhere else. But sometimes, as our initial social group begins to diminish, from disability, limited mobility, and losing our circle of friends, we start to feel more isolated, and feel like isolating ourselves. But that's dangerous thinking.

Health care professionals and scientists are now telling us that loneliness is the greatest health epidemic in the modern world today. The British government last year appointed a Minister of Loneliness to address these issues in its country. People are going weeks and months without contact with friends or family.

We, at Beth Emeth, need to do our part for our community.

On Erev Rosh Hashanah this year, I issued a challenge to those present. Using index cards with people's names & contact information, I asked each person present to talk with someone they didn't know or didn't know well, to exchange information, and to meet up at some point between Rosh Hashanah & Yom Kippur. The idea was to stress that as human beings, we crave connection, and that sometimes we have to go out of our natural comfort zones to discover new friends who are right in front of us. If you participated in this and have any feedback, I would love to hear from you. So far, I have heard very positive responses.

Let's take this a step further. If you weren't there or didn't have a chance to reach out to someone new, it's not too late. I have contact cards in my office of members & guests. I would especially like to encourage folks to reach out to some of our members who have physical limitations which have been preventing them from participating in services and other shul activities. Please come by the office or contact me personally, and we'll help you make a friendly connection. Let's make this year of 5780 and good year, a year where we all feel more connected to one another.

L'shalom,

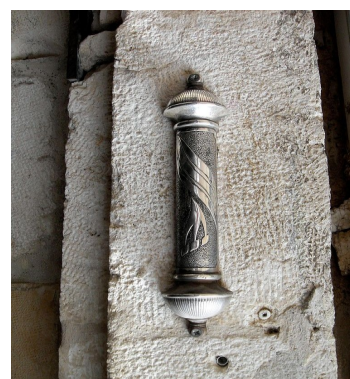

Rabbi Tracee

The culmination will be a group celebration at services on June 6, 2020. There are no prerequisites, but the ability to read Hebrew at any level and familiarity with the Shabbat morning service are both pluses. If you can't read Hebrew, we will work with you to meet your goals. Minimum registration is 4 students.

Register for any of these classes by dropping by the Beth Emeth office, or calling the office to reserve your spot. Some classes require minimum registration in order to be held. Please register by October 23.

The following Yahzeits will be observed during August
Kaddish may be said on Friday evenings and Saturday mornings.
El Malei Rachamim, the memorial prayer, may be said on the Monday or Thursday pre-
