Number 7

FROM THE DESK OF TOM BEHRENDT, PRESIDENT

L' Shana Tova. May You be sealed for a Year of Nachas, Mazel and Brachas. Reb Lev will be joined by a very talented young man for the High Holidays, Matias Naiman-Molina, who will lead Shacharit, chant Torah, and assist in other ways . There will be a Community Yizkor Service Mincha as a public service to the Community at no charge.

Tickets for Non-Members will be offered at $180 for all Services. Break the Fast will open to all and final price will be announced.

Beth Emeth needs your help now more than ever. The Air Conditioner for the Sanctuary needs repairs (will be ready for Holidays) and the Arizona Rangers have provided armed Security for all Synagogue Services and functions. They will be here for all Services for our protection. Please consider being more generous than usual with your donations to Beth Emeth this year. Your Board is working very hard to ensure the most meaningful and safe Services for the High Holidays. Please do your part!

We have some amazing programs lined up for the Community as listed in the Observer. Please come out and enjoy these events.

The library has been organized and has a wide variety of books on many subjects that are available for your pleasure and edification. Please feel free to browse and borrow any of the books.

We have a Minyan on Thursday mornings at 9 AM and need to have more participation from You. Service is an hour and allows people to recite Kaddish for Departed Loved Ones. Jewish Law prohibits saying Kaddish if a Minyan is not available. So please consider attending services one Thursday a month or adding your name to the call list if we are short of a Minyan.

Weekly Service Schedule

- * Thursday morning Minyan begins at 9 am in the library.
- * If you are coming to say Kaddish please call the office to let us know so we can insure we have at least 10 present as attendance varies week to week. 623-584-7210.
- * Friday Kabbalat Shabbat services begin at 6:00 pm.
- * Shabbat Morning Services begin at 9:30 am on Saturday.

Words from the Heart: Reflections on Torah and Tradition by Hazzan Lev Ettelson

On this first anniversary of my tenure as the Spiritual Leader of Beth Emeth Congregation, I would like to say what an honor and privilege it is to serve in such a warm, friendly and engaged congregation. Our Shabbat services and classes are well attended (considering the size of our membership) and special events are attracting people from outside our congregation. Kol Hakavod (kudos) to all those who have dedicated their time and energy to help make BEC a more vibrant and engaging community. We have many new things planned for the year ahead and together we can make it happen (with heavenly assistance)!

On July 13th our nation witnessed a shocking event: the attempted assassination of former President Trump. Fireman Corey Comperatore died sacrificing himself to save his family and several others were seriously wounded. This is a terrible reminder of where we are as a nation. Politics has a way of dividing people, yet, we must not let our differences of opinion lead to hatred and violence. We need to remember that we are “One nation under G-d” and as the Torah teaches us, all human beings are created in the Divine image.

The 9th of Av (beginning the evening of August 12) is our people’s collective day of mourning the various tragedies that have befallen us throughout history, most notably the destruction of our Holy Temple in Jerusalem. The Talmud teaches us that the spiritual cause of the Temple’s destruction was hatred and divisiveness. The Torah commands us to “Let them make Me a sanctuary so that I may dwell among them.” (Exodus 25:8) In other words, religious life is about being in a harmonious and healthy relationship with Hashem, ourselves and one another. When that relationship becomes poisoned by anger and hatred that creates an opening for evil.

A week after the 9th of Av, is the full moon of the 15th of Av which the Talmud proclaims to be the most joyous of days. In ancient times, this was the day when “daughters of Jerusalem would go dance in the vineyards... whoever did not have a wife would go there” to find oneself a spouse. This juxtaposition demonstrates that it is possible to move from hatred to love. In the month of Elul which follows Av, we begin the process of teshuvah, in preparation for Rosh Hashanah. Teshuvah (which literally means return) is an opportunity to return to our true self, repair our relationships and rededicate our lives to what is essential. As we continue to build our community/sanctuary let us remember the holy purpose for which we were created: helping others, learning, growing, providing comfort and inspiring each other to be our best, most authentic selves as we participate in the process of Tikkun Olam, making the world a better place.

From the Editor's Desk

The following is an article from the second 2024 edition of the Guide Dog News, published by Guide Dogs for the Blind. It features Diane Shapiro, who has not only brought craft programs to Beth Emeth Congregation, but who has also arranged several programs to benefit visually impaired people in our community. Story and photo reprinted with permission from Guide Dogs for the Blind. To learn more about their mission, please visit guidedogs.com.

Guide Dogs for the Blind (GDB) has been a big part of Megan Minkiewicz's life. She grew up in California with GDB career-changed dogs and retired guides as pets. Her older sisters were puppy-raising volunteers in the 1970s, and her mother became a guide dog client at age 80.

Megan and her husband Alex are raising their 18th guide dog puppy, a yellow Lab named Lancer. They have been donors for 20+ years and have named GDB in their estate plans. "The primary reason we support the organization is because GDB cares for the health and wellbeing of the dogs we raised for their entire lives," notes Megan. And she says GDB's unrivaled care and support for its clients is another key reason. "We chose to give to organizations that we believe in and that we know have strong reputations in their communities. We see the impact and the results of GDB's work every day. I see it with my mom—their willingness to support clients and fast response is world class."

Megan has introduced generations of nieces and nephews to the organization as well. "I'm most proud of all the people we have brought into the GDB fold because of our involvement with the organization. Friends who came to the holiday event want to become puppy raisers! I've come to realize that it's not just about the dogs, it's about the people. The people are what make GDB great."

Beth Emeth Congregation of the West Valley to Host Prof. Gary Rendsburg for a week-long lecture tour across the greater Phoenix area.
November 10th -18th, 2024

In an effort to share amazing learning opportunities with others, Beth Emeth Congregation of the West Valley will be hosting Professor Gary Rendsburg from Rutgers University, New Jersey, over the week of November 10th-18th. His lectures will occur at seven different venues in both the east and west valleys with a different topic at each location.

Each venue will handle its own registration. Individuals are invited to attend lectures at multiple locations depending on interest, building positive shared learning experiences and connections within and among communities.

Prof. Rendsburg is the author of seven books and more than 200 scholarly articles. He has produced two series for the Great Courses program, plus he lectures regularly for Smithsonian Associates, the Biblical Archaeology Society, and other adult education venues.

Prof. Rendsburg has visited all the major archaeological sites of Israel, Egypt, and Jordan, plus he has excavated at Tel For and Caesarea. He also has done extensive research on medieval Hebrew manuscripts at leading libraries and has served as visiting research scholar at prestigious universities both domestically and world wide including Israel, England, Australia, and Rome.

His expertise covers history, archaeology, ancient manuscripts, and literature.

Watch for the lecture schedule with topics, locations and registration information coming soon.

This program is partially made possible by generous funding from the Center for Jewish Philanthropy and by individual sponsors.
