Read by Harvey Zarensky

Parashat Emor outlines laws for Kohanim (priests) regarding holiness and purity, including marriage restrictions and physical requirements for service. It details the "Parshat HaMoadim," listing the Jewish calendar's holy days: Shabbat, Passover, Shavuot, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur and Sukkot. Emor concludes with laws on the menorah, showbread, and punishment for blasphemy. The word Emor means "speak" or "say," referring to God's directive to Moses to instruct the Kohanim regarding these holy protocols.
